SKU: RS-A20128

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Purpose & Benefits of the IMAK Computer Glove - Universal

The IMAK Computer Glove is ingeniously designed to provide essential support and comfort for individuals who spend extensive hours on the computer, preventing wrist pain and discomfort associated with repetitive movements. This universal-size glove features an ergonomic design that helps maintain proper wrist alignment, significantly reducing the risk of repetitive strain injuries such as carpal tunnel syndrome. The breathable material and thoughtful construction ensure the glove is comfortable for continuous wear, making it an ideal choice for office workers, gamers, and anyone who uses a keyboard or mouse extensively.

Features

- Ergonomic Support: Promotes optimal wrist positioning to minimize stress and strain during extended computer use.
- Built-in Wrist Cushion: Features a massaging ergoBeads pad at the wrist that conforms to your wrist’s contours, providing exceptional comfort and support.
- Breathable Fabric: Made from a stretchy cotton blend, ensuring the glove remains cool and comfortable even after hours of use.
- Universal Sizing: Designed to fit most hand sizes comfortably, with a versatile, stretchable material that accommodates various wrist dimensions.
- Easy to Use: The glove's design allows for easy slip-on and slip-off, suitable for quick transitions between tasks without any hassle.

- Open Finger Tips: Enables touch sensitivity and dexterity, allowing for unimpeded typing, mouse use, and other hand movements.

Specifications
