

OPPO ANKLE SUPPORT - SMALL

SKU: OPP100130

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Purpose & Benefits

The OPPO Ankle Support (Size Small) is designed to provide stabilising compression and targeted support to the ankle joint—ideal for managing mild sprains, strains, or general weakness. Crafted from durable neoprene with a breathable cotton lining, it offers both warmth and moisture control, helping to reduce swelling and enhance comfort during movement. This support helps maintain confidence and stability during everyday activities, promoting a sense of security while supporting mobility and recovery.

Features

- Compression support to enhance ankle stability and reduce strain
- Breathable neoprene and cotton lining for warmth and sweat management
- Durable construction built for sustained daily wear
