PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Purpose & Benefits

The OPPO Shoulder Support delivers gentle compression and stabilisation to alleviate pain and support mild shoulder injuries or overuse. Its open sleeve design with adjustable hook-and-loop straps ensures a customisable, secure fit, allowing you to stay active with peace of mind. The body-contoured construction and breathable neoprene-cotton blend maintain comfort during extended wear, helping reduce inflammation and encourage improved circulation and posture—all while promoting mobility and confidence in everyday tasks.

Features

- Open sleeve design with adjustable straps for a custom and snug fit
- Body-contoured shape provides even compression and stabilisation
- Breathable neoprene and cotton lining for comfort during prolonged wear
