PURPOSE & BENEFITS

Redefining the paradigm of comfort and innovation, the Ottobock Terra Aquos cushion stands tall in the realm of wheelchair seating. By merging years of expertise from the automotive seating industry with cutting-edge technology, Ottobock offers an unparalleled sitting experience tailored for the modern wheelchair user.

FEATURES

- LiquiCell Inserts: The cushion is enhanced with four LiquiCell inserts. These inserts significantly reduce micro-shear, ensuring comfort and safety during natural movements and transfers.
- Exclusive Rest Suspension Foam: A testament to Ottobock's commitment to quality, the Terra Aquos cushion is predominantly made up of their proprietary Rest Suspension foam technology. This foam has been elastically modified to ensure superior pressure redistribution.
- Enhanced Shock Absorption: The unique molecular structure of the foam ensures that impact and shocks are absorbed more effectively during everyday use. This gives wheelchair users a spring-like or suspension sensation, enhancing the overall ride quality.
- Highly Engineered Foams: Drawing from a rich history in automotive seating, Ottobock has developed a foam perfectly suited for prolonged sitting.
- Advanced Molecular Flow: Unlike typical foams, the molecules in Ottobock's foam are elongated and feature fewer branches. This promotes enhanced molecule movement under various loads, resulting in optimized immersion and envelopment for exceptional pressure redistribution.
- Exceptional Durability: One of the cushion's hallmarks is its durability. The foam's resistance to breakdown and compression set means it remains consistent in comfort and support even with extended usage.

- Lightweight Experience: Experience the sensation of suspension without the added weight. Users can enjoy the benefits of a spring/suspension feel without the need for additional suspension components on their wheelchairs.
