PURPOSE & BENEFITS

Combining innovation and precision, the Ottobock Terra Flair Cushion is a testament to Ottobock's relentless pursuit of excellence in the realm of wheelchair seating solutions. By integrating state-of-the-art adjustable air technology with unmatched Rest Suspension foam, the Terra Flair offers an unparalleled experience tailored to the demanding needs of today's wheelchair users.

FEATURES

- Adjustable Air Insert: At the heart of the Terra Flair lies a 70 mm tall adjustable air insert, ensuring the user gets a customized and dynamic seating solution.
- Exclusive Rest Suspension Foam: Ottobock's proprietary Rest Suspension foam technology surrounds the air insert. This foam is elastically modified, offering exemplary pressure redistribution.
- Optimal Pressure Redistribution: Specifically designed for those at a high risk of pressure ulcers, the Terra Flair guarantees optimal pressure redistribution.
- Shear Protection: The cushion offers enhanced shear protection in the ischial area, furthering skin protection and preventing potential complications.
- Impact Damping: The Rest Suspension foam provides significant impact damping, ensuring every ride is comfortable.
- Stability: The unique properties of the Rest Suspension foam combined with the anatomical design of the cushion guarantee a high level of stability, fostering user confidence.
- Highly Engineered Foams: Ottobock's lineage in automotive seating is evident in the advanced foam used in the Terra Flair cushion, ensuring longevity and consistent comfort.
- Advanced Molecular Structure: Ottobock's foams are designed with elongated molecules with fewer branches. This molecular architecture facilitates better flow under loads, resulting in superior immersion and envelopment.

- Dynamic Comfort: Wheelchair users can enjoy a spring/suspension-like experience without the added bulk and weight of suspension components.
- Exceptional Durability: With almost negligible breakdown or compression set, even under extended use, the Terra Flair promises to be a long-term companion for wheelchair users.

Why Choose the Ottobock Terra Flair Cushion?

The Ottobock Terra Flair Cushion isn't just another seating solution; it's a revolution in comfort and design. For those who prioritize top-tier comfort, safety, and innovation, the Terra Flair cushion is the ultimate choice. Experience the fusion of air technology and advanced foam craftsmanship, tailored for the discerning wheelchair user.
